Highclare
School

JUNIOR ENGLISH CREATIVE WRITING COMPETITION

The Highclare Senior School English department, invites all potential authors in Yr3 to Yr6 to take part in our exciting creative writing competition.

We would like students to write a poem about a significant person from the BAME community to link in with the Black Lives Matter movement. Pupils should start by researching a significant figure that many people may not be aware of.

Send your piece of creative writing to Highclare School at the school's address to arrive no later than Friday 16 October 2020

Entries should be submitted using the page overleaf and poem must fit within the box. Entrants must tell us their full name, year and school.

PRIZES

* 1 top prize winner will receive a book token, will appear in the annual Highclarian magazine and be presented with the Highclare School Junior Creative Writing Competition shield by the Headmaster, Dr. R. Luker
* 9 further winning entries will be presented with certificates, a book token and will appear in the annual Highclarian magazine.
* All entrants will feature in a special exhibition to be held at Highclare School and will be invited to a presentation evening. (Restrictions allowing)

www.highclareschool.co.uk

Name:

Class year:

School:

A significant person from the BAME community is..

Highclare School, 10 Sutton Road, Erdington, Birmingham, B23 6QL enquiries@highclareschool.co.uk