Triumphantly

In a way that shows great happiness or joy at a victory or achievement

Miss Ali triumphantly pumped her fist after she had won the pie eating contest.

The army paraded triumphantly into the town after winning the battle.

The players marched triumphantly across the field after their win.

Coordinating Conjunctions

Subordinating Conjunctions

Be a Word Detective- which conjunction best fits the sentences on your table and why?

and	but	so
or	if	as
because		yet
when		for

Build sentences by selecting two main clauses and a suitable conjunction.

Pick two cards with simple clauses written on them. Choose a conjunction that would make sense in a sentence.

Would you need a comma?

Where would it go if you did?

Which other conjunctions could work?

What kind of sentence do you have?

I put on my coat.

It was cold and windy outside.

Sam doesn't like mashed potato.

He loves chips.

I burnt the toast.

I had to make some more.

It's time for tea.

I'm not hungry.

The children played net ball.

They lost the match.

I need to learn my times tables.

I will fail my test.

My mum buys me sweets.

She loves me.

LO: To orally rehearse a Traditional Tale

Plenary

Let's retell the story

1. Opening

Once upon a time

2. Build Up

One day

3. Problem

Unfortunately

4. Resolution

Luckily

5. Ending

In the end

Let's make a story map

Plenary

How much can you remember- babble gabble to your partner

