

LO: To understand the features of a Traditional Tale

Be a Word Detective- look at the picture clues to guess what these words mean. You should already know some.

Groceries

Scowled

Stomped

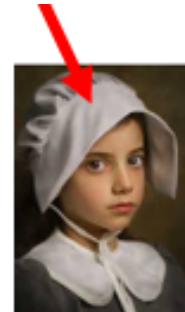

Woolly

Sneaked

Bonnet

Kettle

Sleeping

Groceries	Scowled	Stomped	Woolly
Sneaked	Bonnet	Kettle	Sleeping

What types of words are these?
Nouns, verbs or adjectives?
How do you know?

Make a list of words that you can think of when you see this picture – you have one minute

Time's Up!

Start

Let's look in the box and guess what story we're focusing on today.

Things to consider....

Focus on key language used in this text type (Once upon a time, they all lived happily ever after)

Find some key features, e.g. use of dialogue, descriptive phrases.

Identify the good character in the story and the villain.

Discuss the familiar pattern in Traditional Tales.

We will now read Little Red Riding Hood

Stop reading at the part where LRRH sees the wolf
then do a Conscience alley

What we discovered...

Focus on key language used in this text type (Once upon a time, they all lived happily ever after)

What we discovered...

Find some key features, e.g. use of dialogue, descriptive phrases.

What we discovered...

Identify the good character in the story and the villain.

What we discovered...

Discuss the familiar pattern in Traditional Tales.

Likes

- Was there anything you especially liked about this text?
- Anything that caught your attention?
- Anything you would have liked more of?

Dislikes

- Was there anything you didn't like about this text?
- Were there any parts that bored you?

Puzzles

- Was there anything that puzzled you or you thought strange?
- Anything that took you by surprise?
- Any parts you didn't understand?

Connections

- Were there any patterns or connections you noticed?
- Can you make any links between parts of the text?
- Does it remind you of anything else you have read?

Likes

Dislikes

Connections

Puzzles

Plenary

3. Problem

Unfortunately

2. Build Up

One day

Let's retell
the story

4. Resolution

Luckily

1. Opening

Once upon a time

5. Ending

In the end

