

The Haunted House

Inference

As her foot stepped over the gateway, she felt a shiver go down her spine as her imagination ran wild. The owls and bats were flying around, which made the whole thing even spookier. She cautiously crept up the broken, overgrown path and towards the front door where something scratched her leg as she stepped up to the porch through the undergrowth.

Then a light flickered on and off in the hallway. This was all that was needed to make her turn back and run as fast as she could, dropping some of her leaflets in her haste.
