READING NEWSLETTER

Welcome to our second reading newsletter of this year. We have lots to share with you from Spring term!

AUTHOR VISITS

Wow! We have been fortunate to experience author visits across school this term.

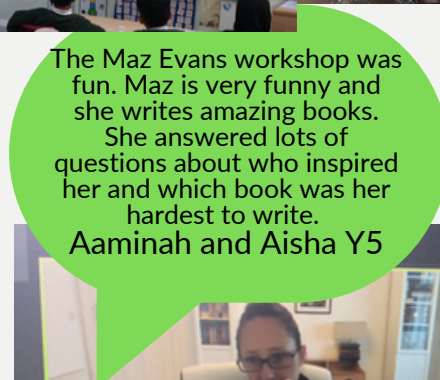

We started off with Maz Evan's (author of Who Let the Gods Out) visiting Y5. It was a jam-packed event which the children thoroughly enjoyed.

KS1 had a visit with Sophy Henn and learnt about her new book series.

EYFS, KS1 and Y3 were excited to meet Swapna Haddow (author of Dave Pigeon). Look at some of the drawings they created.

Year 4 were eager to meet Jenny McLaughlan. They had read her book the Land of Roar during the autumn term and found out about her new book.

Finally, Y6 met Jennifer Killick and dabbled in some creative writing! Some of the children have enjoyed reading her books in school.

The Maz Evans workshop was fun. Maz is very funny and she writes amazing books. She answered lots of questions about who inspired her and which book was her hardest to write.
Aaminah and Aisha Y5

'I liked the visit with Jennifer Killick because there were lots of interesting questions that she answered.

I also enjoyed the writing activity we did where we had to write a story liked to 'Crater Lake'.

Book Week and World Book Day

We were started off this half-term with Book Week and World Book Day. The children had the opportunity to complete work around a chosen picture book. Look at some of the fabulous work produced!
