FILL IN THE GAP

Read the sentences and choose the correct word to fill in the gap. Look back at the 'What is a bully?' section in Anti-bullying to find the correct answer.

A bully is someone who is repeatedly _____ or violent towards others on purpose.

They could choose to hurt someone _____, for example, by hitting or kicking them.

They could choose to hurt someone verbally, perhaps by _____ or insulting them.

They could also bully using others, by spreading _____.

Look back at the 'What does it mean to be anti-bullying?' section in Anti-bullying to find the correct answer.

If a school, club or person is anti-bullying, they are taking _____ against bullying.

They may also step in if they see bullying, or help a _____ of bullying afterwards.

Importantly, they make it clear that bullying _____ isn't acceptable.

Action against bullying is vital for making any _____ a safer, happier place to be.

Look back at the 'Looking out for bullying' section in Anti-bullying to find the correct answer.

Bullying can happen to _____, in any environment.

It is important to be aware of clues that mean someone needs _____.

Warning signs may include:

- unexplained cuts or _____

Comprehension Ninja 7–8 © Andrew Jennings, 2020

MATCHING

Draw a line with a ruler to match the information. One has already been done for you.

a bully is	unexplained cuts or bruises
reporting bullying	assure them that the bully isn't right
looking out for bullying	repeatedly cruel
stepping in	ask for understanding and support

Draw a line with a ruler to match the information.

bullying happens	talk to the victim
reporting bullying	tell a trusted friend or family member looking out for bullying	in person or online
stepping in	loss of self-confidence

Draw a line with a ruler to match the information.

action against bullying	try to find justice, not revenge
reporting bullying	loss of interest in skills
looking out for bullying	makes any environment safer
stepping in	support them without pressuring them

Comprehension Ninja 7–8 © Andrew Jennings, 2020